

SECTION 09 - CHEESE AND DAIRY

Event times, Kangaroo Valley Hall

- Fri 14 Feb, JUDGING commences 9.00am

Stewards

- Rosie Johnson, Pam Swinfield & Glenn Browning

Judge

- Graham Redhead

Contact

- Email: rjandgb@bigpond.net.au
- Ph: 0438 151 105

Conditions

- See PAVILION INFORMATION.
- Only amateur cheesemakers are eligible to submit entries.
- Public Health regulations expect that pasteurised milk will be used in the making of cheese and dairy produce entered in the show. Entries made with unpasteurised milk will be judged, at the Judge's discretion, but need to be clearly identified.
- Judging will be based on flavour, texture, aroma and appearance of the cheese or dairy product. Stewards will provide a suitable plate on which your entries will be displayed.
- To ensure entries are placed in the correct category, stewards will confirm details when the entry is delivered.
- Weight of cheese exhibited should be approximately 250g and should be presented whole and uncut. Larger cheeses may be presented as a whole or a sample piece of 250g may be submitted. Yoghurt should be at least 250ml and presented in a clear glass container.
- The general order of judging will be juniors, butter, yoghurt, fresh cheeses, soft cheeses, semi hard, hard, blue and washed rind cheeses.
- Judging will be open to the public, which presents a unique opportunity for entrants and the public, to learn more about the way products are assessed and how to choose a good cheese.
- Depending on the number of entries, the open judging may take several hours.

How to Enter

- All entries must be registered at www.kangaroovalleyshow.org.au or in person at the Show Office.
- Entry closing time is 8pm Thurs 13 Feb.
- Entries must be delivered to a steward at the Hall between 1-6pm Thurs 13 Feb or between 7-8am Fri 14 Feb.

Awarding of Prizes

- Trophy, ribbon and prize money awards will be made directly after the Judging on Fri 14 Feb in the Hall.
- Prizes donated by ROSEMARY JOHNSON CELEBRANT – CELEBRATING YOUR LOVE IN KANGAROO VALLEY.
